Story Time

LESSON 1

The crow and the jar

A. Look at the pictures. What do you see?

It is a hot summer day. A crow is sitting on a branch of a tree. It is tired and thirsty.

It flies here and there. It is looking for water.

The crow suddenly sees a jar. It is under a nearby tree.

The crow flies to it quickly.

The crow and the jar

The crow flies down to it at last.

The crow sits on the edge of the jar. It looks inside the jar. The water is at the bottom of it.

The crow looks around.

It sees some pebbles near the jar. The crow picks up the pebbles one by one with its beak.

The crow and the jar

Then it drops them into the jar. The water rises to the brim of the jar.

The crow drinks the water.

Then it flies away happily.

Moral of the story: If there is a will, there is a way.

B. Work in groups and discuss what is happening in the pictures.

C. Listen to the story and repeat the sentences after teacher.

D. Look, listen and read one sentence each by turns.

E. Group work. Read individually the story in A above. Underline the difficult words. Discuss with your partner and try to understand their meanings in the sentences. If none of you know the meaning, ask your teacher.
